Maintaining accreditation

Wednesday 4/8/15

Expanded information for continuing accreditation

- Report on how on-going inquiry worked out

- Report evidence that activities of the QCS improved something in the EPP

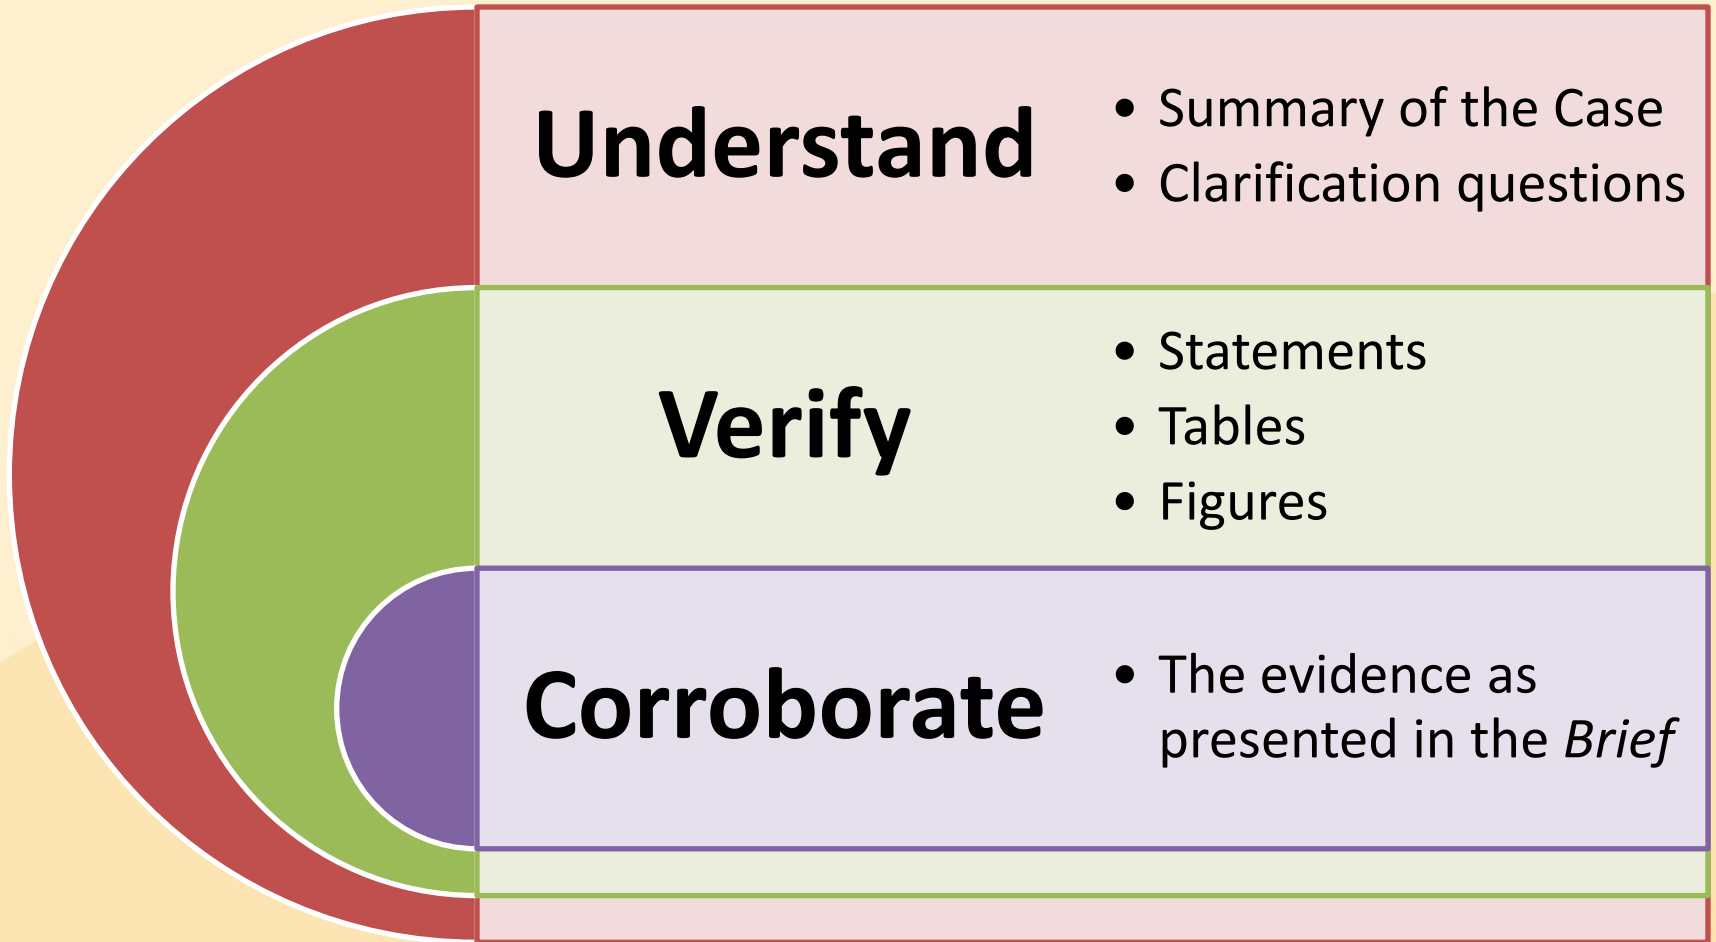

- Describe how evidence “for future use” has been addressed

- Discuss EPP’s response to any weakness or stipulations cited at first accreditation

Site Visit: Is the Inquiry Brief trustworthy?

The Audit of the Inquiry Brief

Target: “Ninety-six percent of our students pass the Elementary Education MTTC exam and 80% pass the Subject Area MTTC exams on their first attempt” (page 12).

Probe: Get the MTTC results for Elementary Education and Subject Area for 2009-10, 2010-11, and 2011-12 to verify.

Finding: Present 2 tables: list scores of all elementary ed students in the 3 years and list scores of all secondary ed students in the 3 years. Note the percentage passing on first attempt.

Score (Verified, Verified with Error, Not Verified)

Materials that make the case for accreditation

Case Analysis:

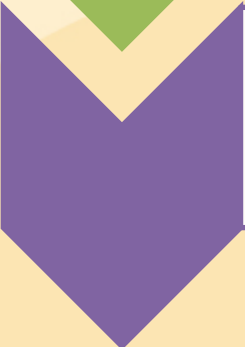

How well does the EPP make its case that it meets the Standards or Quality Principles?

- What evidence is consistent?

- What evidence is inconsistent?

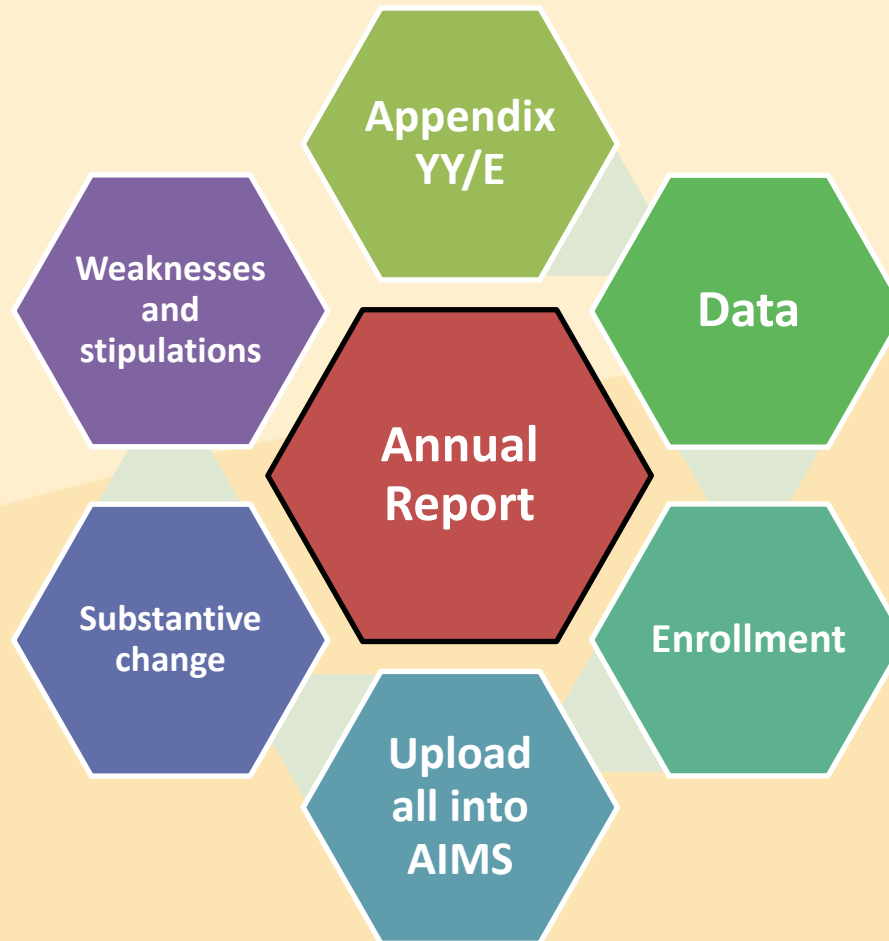

- What are rival explanations for the evidence (if any)?

IB Commission Review

- Does what the candidates have learned satisfy CAEP Standards/QP1?
- Does what the faculty has learned satisfy CAEP Standards/QP2?
- Does the evidence in Appendix B satisfy Standards/QP3?
- Does any problem rise to the level of a weakness or a stipulation?

Feedback Survey

- Engaged feedback is vital to CAEP. You will have an opportunity to complete a survey on preconference workshops at the end of the day. Surveys will be sent via email on Wednesday, April 8th. We encourage your participation.

Thank you!
