

The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley

Dean, College of Education and P-16 Integration

The University of Texas Rio Grande Valley (UTRGV) invites nominations and applications for an experienced and innovative leader to serve as the Dean of the College Education and P-16 Integration. The Dean is the chief academic and administrative leader of the College of Education and P-16 Integration. This individual reports directly to the Executive Vice President for Academic Affairs, Student Success, and P-16 integration and works closely with the Executive Vice President for Research, Graduate Studies, and New Program Development.

The university seeks a candidate who will provide academic and administrative leadership to ensure the college's continued development, operation, expansion and enhancement. The responsibilities of the dean include implementing a clear and concise strategic plan to advance that mission and vision; building an organizational culture of collegial teamwork; fostering an organizational and educational climate that promotes and celebrates diversity; providing leadership in program assessment, external program review, and professional accreditation, and leading the efforts to assess, develop, grow and manage undergraduate and graduate academic programs and curriculum development.

Qualified Candidates must have a terminal degree; minimum of five (5) years of administrative experience at the chair level or above, or, comparable experience in educational leadership, with responsibility for budgets, personnel decisions, performance reviews and decisions for promotion and tenure; established record of accomplishment in scholarship, teaching, and service that qualifies the candidate for a senior faculty appointment in one of the college's disciplines; full-time teaching experience at the university level; evidence of past effectiveness in responding to the educational needs of an urban, multicultural population; and demonstrated commitment to the university's core values of integrating scholarly research, teaching, and service to develop students' talents and prepare them for success in a dynamic global society.
