

School of Education
Literacy Education Faculty – Tenure-Track

Baldwin Wallace University seeks applicants for a full-time, tenure track position in Literacy Education in the School of Education beginning the 2017-18 academic year. The position includes teaching in the undergraduate and graduate literacy programs during the 9 month academic year. Participation in the summer graduate literacy program is also expected with commensurate over-load payment. Responsibilities may also include coordination of the curriculum and instruction for the literacy programs. Baldwin Wallace University is a teaching first institution, with a 21 credit hour load per year. Tenure track positions also include academic advising of undergraduate students, scholarly productivity in the field of Education or teacher preparation, and service to the School, University, and community.

We are seeking candidates with a passion for and commitment to the field of literacy for children and adolescents. They will join a community of equally committed teacher-scholars who see their role in preparing the next generation of teachers as both a privilege and a tremendous responsibility. The School of Education at Baldwin Wallace is known for balancing its rigorous and comprehensive preparation programs with innovative approaches and personal attention to its students. Literacy courses are required in every undergraduate license program. The School has coursework that leads to the Ohio K-12 Reading Endorsement at the graduate level. A Master's of Arts in Education degree may be completed with this endorsement. Both on-campus and on-line programs are offered in the graduate program.

An earned doctorate in literacy/reading education is required. Applicants must also have at least three years of full-time K-12 teaching experience that includes instruction in reading. Previous college teaching experience is preferred, as is supervisory experience with field, clinical, or practica experiences in literacy education. The successful candidate will also have technology integration skills and be able to teach effectively in an on-line environment.

The search committee will begin reviewing applications October 15th and will continue until the position is filled. Priority consideration will be given to applications received by October 15th. Send a) letter of application, b) curriculum vitae, c) statement of teaching philosophy, d) evidence of teaching effectiveness, such as course or teaching evaluations, and e) contact information for three current references. Include all application information in one Word or one PDF document. Submit this document using the Apply Now link on BW's Employment and Careers' web page: <https://www.bw.edu/employment/> Additional information, such as official transcripts, will be required of finalists.

Baldwin Wallace University is an EEO/AA employer and educator. At BW, we support and encourage diversity in a variety of forms. We value and appreciate inclusive excellence in the classroom, within extracurricular activities, and as we engage our community partners.

Learn more about Diversity Affairs at: <https://www.bw.edu/about/diversity>

Apply Here: <http://www.Click2Apply.net/dnnyn7kwq6>