

Tenure-Track, Assistant/Associate/Professor; Teaching, Learning and Leadership

<http://jobs.una.edu/postings/6702>

The University of North Alabama's College of Education and Human Sciences invites applications for the position of tenure-track, rank open faculty in the Department of Teaching, Learning, and Leadership. Salary and rank will be commensurate with the selected candidate's degree and experience. Appointment will be effective with the Fall 2023 semester. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position has been filled. We have two positions open that will be filled from this posting.

Essential duties for this position include: Teach undergraduate and graduate classes within the department; advise and mentor students; ability to work effectively with students and p-12 partners (administrators and classroom teachers); involvement in research activities; ability to assist with accreditation activities; participation in university and community service initiatives; active and involved leadership roles in college and university committees; and curriculum development.

Minimum qualifications include: an earned doctorate with an emphasis in Curriculum and Instruction, Educational Psychology, Educational Technology, or a related education field is required; demonstration of success as a classroom teacher at the secondary school level with a minimum of three years of experience in the US is required; teaching experience at the college/university level is preferred; experience in or the ability to deliver online instruction is preferred; experience or interest in directing student research is preferred; ability to teach research at the graduate level is preferred; experience in supervising interns in the K-12 setting is preferred; and a background in STEM teaching is preferred.

To view a complete job description and/or apply for this position, please visit our Online Employment System at <http://jobs.una.edu/postings/6702>. Applications will only be accepted via this system. Please be prepared to upload a cover letter, resume/CV, and a reference list with contact information for at least three professional/academic references at the time of application. In addition, this level of position requires the submission of a one-page diversity statement, the details of which can be found here.

Official transcripts for the highest degree attained are required of the successful candidate, but unofficial copies will be accepted for the application process. If any of your graduate hours in the relevant teaching discipline are taken from a degree(s) that is not your highest attained, an official transcript of that degree(s) must also be submitted. Electronic copies, if available, of unofficial transcripts may be attached under the attachment headings of Unofficial Transcript 1, Unofficial Transcript 2, etc. Electronic copies of unofficial/official transcripts may also be requested to be sent to employment@una.edu. If electronic copies of transcripts are unavailable, hard copies must be sent to: Human Resources, One Harrison Plaza, UNA Box 5043, Florence, AL, 35632 or brought to 601 Cramer Way, Room 226. Official transcripts must be sent directly to HR from the issuing school via email or postal mail to be considered official. Transcripts with a designation of "Issued to Student", or with the student name listed as the recipient will not be considered official. Official transcripts will be required of the successful candidate prior to the start date of the appointment, but unofficial copies will be accepted for the application process. If you attended UNA, please click here to fill out an online, electronic transcript request form. Your transcripts will be delivered to HR and we will upload them to your application packet at no charge to you. For questions, please email employment@una.edu or call 256-765-4291.

UNA is an equal opportunity employer committed to achieving excellence and strength through diversity. UNA seeks a wide range of applicants for its positions so that one of our core values, ethnic and cultural diversity, will be affirmed. UNA is a smoke-free campus.

We welcome applicants who are committed to working at a university that values diversity, equity, and inclusion for faculty, staff, and students.

Tenure-Track, Rank Open Faculty; Instructional Technology & Design

<http://jobs.una.edu/postings/6719>

The University of North Alabama's College of Education and Human Sciences invites applications for the position of tenure-track, rank open faculty in Instructional Technology & Design within the Department of Teaching, Learning, and Leadership. Salary and rank will be commensurate with the selected candidate's degree and experience. Appointment will be effective with the Fall 2023 semester. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position has been filled.

Primary duties will include advising, mentoring, and teaching online graduate students, conducting scholarly research, publishing in peer-reviewed journals, and providing service the department, college, university, community, and profession.

Minimum qualifications include: an earned doctorate in instructional design, educational technology, or a closely-related field from an accredited university is required (ABD by summer 2023 will be considered); experience in and/or the ability to deliver online instruction is required; demonstrated ability of, or strong promise of efficacy in the college learning environment, in particular a demonstrated ability to teach a full range of courses currently being offered in the ITD program, is preferred; demonstrated professional dispositions, including flexibility, adaptability, embracing equity, responsiveness, reflective teaching practices, and strong work ethic is preferred; evidence of, or strong potential for, developing an active and significant research program in the area of instructional technology or a closely-related field is preferred; experience with Quality Matters, learning management systems, software used in the field, and technologies associated with immersive, augmented environments is preferred; prior instructional design and workforce training experience is preferred; and a demonstrated ability to contribute to course and program development is preferred.

To view a complete job description and/or apply for this position, please visit our Online Employment System at <http://jobs.una.edu/postings/6719>. Applications will only be accepted via this system. Please be prepared to upload a cover letter, resume/CV, and a reference list with contact information for at least three professional/academic references at the time of application. In addition, this level of position requires the submission of a one-page diversity statement, the details of which can be found here.

Official transcripts for the highest degree attained are required of the successful candidate, but unofficial copies will be accepted for the application process. If any of your graduate hours in the relevant teaching discipline are taken from a degree(s) that is not your highest attained, an official transcript of that degree(s) must also be submitted. Electronic copies, if available, of unofficial transcripts may be attached under the attachment headings of Unofficial Transcript 1, Unofficial Transcript 2, etc. Electronic copies of unofficial/official transcripts may also be requested to be sent to employment@una.edu. If electronic copies of transcripts are unavailable, hard copies must be sent to: Human Resources, One Harrison Plaza, UNA Box 5043, Florence, AL, 35632 or brought to 601 Cramer Way, Room 226. Official transcripts must be sent directly to HR from the issuing school via email or postal mail to be considered official. Transcripts with a designation of "Issued to Student", or with the student name listed as the recipient will not be considered official. Official transcripts will be required of the successful candidate prior to the start date of the appointment, but unofficial copies will be accepted for the application process. If you attended UNA, please click here to fill out an online, electronic transcript request form. Your transcripts will be delivered to HR and we will upload them to your application packet at no charge to you. For questions, please email employment@una.edu or call 256-765-4291.

UNA is an equal opportunity employer committed to achieving excellence and strength through diversity. UNA seeks a wide range of applicants for its positions so that one of our core values, ethnic and cultural diversity, will be affirmed. UNA is a smoke-free campus.

We welcome applicants who are committed to working at a university that values diversity, equity, and inclusion for faculty, staff, and students.

Tenure-Track, Rank Open Faculty; Elementary/Early Childhood Education

<http://jobs.una.edu/postings/6721>

The University of North Alabama's College of Education and Human Sciences invites applications for the position of tenure-track, rank open faculty in Elementary/Early Childhood Education within the Department of Teaching, Learning, and Leadership. Salary and rank will be commensurate with the selected candidate's degree and experience. The Education Preparation Program is accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation and approved by the Alabama State Department of Education. Appointment will be effective with the Fall 2023 semester. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position has been filled. We have two positions open that will be filled from this posting.

Primary duties will include teaching undergraduate and graduate classes in elementary and/or early childhood education; advising and mentoring students; working effectively with students as well as P-6 schools and administrators; providing service to the university and community; active, involved leadership role in college and university committees; and involvement with research activities.

Minimum qualifications include: an earned doctorate in elementary education, early childhood education, or a closely-related field from an accredited university is required (ABD will be considered; closely-related field i.e. curriculum and instruction will be considered only if applicant has a minimum of 30 graduate hours in elementary or early childhood education); eligibility to possess teaching credentials in elementary and/or early childhood education is required; recent, successful P-6 experience is required; experience in and/or the ability to deliver online instruction is required; teaching experience at the college or university level is preferred; interest in or experience directing student research is preferred; and experience in the supervision of interns in the p-12 setting is preferred.

To view a complete job description and/or apply for this position, please visit our Online Employment System at <http://jobs.una.edu/postings/6721>. Applications will only be accepted via this system. Please be prepared to upload a cover letter, resume/CV, and a reference list with contact information for at least three professional/academic references at the time of application. In addition, this level of position requires the submission of a one-page diversity statement, the details of which can be found here.

Official transcripts for the highest degree attained are required of the successful candidate, but unofficial copies will be accepted for the application process. If any of your graduate hours in the relevant teaching discipline are taken from a degree(s) that is not your highest attained, an official transcript of that degree(s) must also be submitted. Electronic copies, if available, of unofficial transcripts may be attached under the attachment headings of Unofficial Transcript 1, Unofficial Transcript 2, etc. Electronic copies of unofficial/official transcripts may also be requested to be sent to employment@una.edu. If electronic copies of transcripts are unavailable, hard copies must be sent to: Human Resources, One Harrison Plaza, UNA Box 5043, Florence, AL, 35632 or brought to 601 Cramer Way, Room 226. Official transcripts must be sent directly to HR from the issuing school via email or postal mail to be considered official. Transcripts with a designation of "Issued to Student", or with the student name listed as the recipient will not be considered official. Official transcripts will be required of the successful candidate prior to the start date of the appointment, but unofficial copies will be accepted for the application process. If you attended UNA, please click here to fill out an online, electronic transcript request form. Your transcripts will be delivered to HR and we will upload them to your application packet at no charge to you. For questions, please email employment@una.edu or call 256-765-4291.

UNA is an equal opportunity employer committed to achieving excellence and strength through diversity. UNA seeks a wide range of applicants for its positions so that one of our core values, ethnic and cultural diversity, will be affirmed. UNA is a smoke-free campus.

We welcome applicants who are committed to working at a university that values diversity, equity, and inclusion for faculty, staff, and students.